

CALL FOR ENTRIES

THE 2007 KENNETH F. BROWN ASIA PACIFIC CULTURE AND ARCHITECTURE DESIGN AWARD

The School of Architecture at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa and the Asia-Pacific Center for Architecture (APCA), in association with Architects Regional Council Asia (ARCASIA), is soliciting entries for the Fifth Kenneth F. Brown Architecture Design Award Program. The program recognizes outstanding examples of contemporary architecture in the Asia Pacific region. The Award winner(s) will receive a cash prize of $25,000 (taxes may apply) and will be invited as a speaker(s) at the International Symposium on Asia Pacific Architecture which will take place in Spring 2007 at the School of Architecture, University of Hawai'i at Manoa.

ELIGIBILITY & SELECTION CRITERIA

The design award program is open to any architectural work located either in the continent of Asia or a region that touches the Pacific Ocean. Entered projects should be completed between January 1996 and November 2006. In evaluating the competition submissions, the jury will seek a design intervention that makes the most sensitive, creative, and critical response to its built, cultural, and natural environments.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

The School of Architecture, University of Hawai'i at Manoa, should receive a non-returnable registration fee of US $125 for each project submission, no later than December 10, 2006. Prospective entrants may register by mailing fee ($125 for each project) by check (payable in U.S. dollars to "Asia-Pacific Center for Architecture" drawn in a bank in the U.S.) or international money order, along with following information: Name, Organization, Telephone and Fax Number, E-mail address, and the number of projects to be entered. For credit card payment, please use form on web page, or write for form. Upon receipt of the registration information and fee, required forms and detailed instructions for submitting necessary documentation of each project will be sent. The Project Submission deadline is January 31, 2007. The Design Award Program will retain all submitted entry materials for its Archive.
